Drink menu resembles the 70s and the food is fantastic. The waiters wear black and white . Piano bar downstairs. very friendly staff. Overstuffed furniture downstairs and a menu as well. read more. What User doesn't like about The Blue Mermaid:

Everything about this place is ancient, including the menu, and the food and service was mediocre. Mandatory masks apparently don't apply to the owners and some of the wait staff, which made me very uncomfortable. Owners and staff should be held accountable and act responsibly...during the pandemic and if they genuinely cared about their clientele (the majority were seniors) they would put their masks on! read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also have something outside. For those who want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, The Blue Mermaid from St. Catharines is a good bar, there are also delectable vegetarian meals on the menu. Of course, the right drink with a meal can be crucial; this gastropub presents a wide diversity of scrumptious and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, and you may look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
