Simple décor, wood's tables and chairs, bottles and small glasses for water that reminds me a fabulous trip to Mykonos in Greece. Tasty food, good wine, a server that takes time to explain the menu, service just fast enough to allow us to be on time to our next step, the theater. I wish you to stop by, one day. read more. What User doesn't like about Ouzeri:

The customer service needs a major improvement. I arrived here with my friend at 17:00 on Saturday 17th of February without reservation. It is understandable that we were told the place would be full in 30 minutes due to previous reservations, so we would have...no time to eat. What is not acceptable is that we were told You snooze, you lose fairly loudly by the young server near the door as we were leaving. The food... read more.
