Looked like a small unassuming place but recommended to me. Didn't know what to expect. Promptly we were greeted by the gracious and outgoing owner serving us not only with a smile but good food with large portions. I had a regular size chicken shawarma that was so large I had to take part of it home. Before we left he came to offer us a sample of his cashew baklava. Prices are very reasonable and the place may be sm... read more.
