The food here was very good. We ordered many different dishes and shared. The wood oven pizza was fabulous, the spinach dip was one of the best we've ever had. The tomato sauce they use is very good. We also had a pesto pasta dish, which was a special, it was very good, but was a little over cooked. We would definitely eat here again if we ever find ourselves in Sudbury. read more. What User doesn't like about Di Gusto:

It's not authentic Italian or maybe it is but it misses the mark. Fun atmosphere. Not a place for a date on the weekend unless you like a lot of noise. Reasonably priced and food is not bad. Similar to east side marios in taste but locally owned and not prepackaged food. Kids would be great there as it's loud and you wouldn't be worried about them disturbing others. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. You can at Di Gusto from Sudbury savor delicious vegetarian courses, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, and you can expect typical Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. If you'd like something after-dinner treat to finish off, Di Gusto does not disappoint with its good selection of desserts, The delicious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack.
