I was about to leave Pointe a Callie to find some lunch when I noticed that there a bistro there. It's not well publicised but just go in and take the lift to the second floor. Light, airy, jazz playing, relaxed service and good food. Gazpacho, sea bass and dessert, and the price was reasonable too! read more. What User doesn't like about L'Arrivage Restaurant:

The food was quite good and enough of a selection for lunch. The service was slow. The restaurant is on a higher floor in the building, has floor to ceiling windows and a terrace with nice views.
