I have lived in Ile-Bizard for upward of 22 years and have seen this café in the corner of the strip mall however never attempted to try because it was a traditional espresso bar (which I do not frequent at all). When I was invited by someone who told me that the place now has a proper menu and the food was great, I decided to give it a try. No regrets whatsoever, the pasta and paninis were amazing and enjoyed by all... read more.
