This location is always a good standby for drinks, lunch or dinner. Their fish tacos or rotisserie chicken are my favorites. The burgers are always fresh and they don't spare on the portion size. I've read the comments about service being hit or miss but we haven't had that issue. The staff are friendly, accommodating and ready to fix a mistake if it happens - without the attitude. The patio is a perfect spot to enjo... read more. What User doesn't like about JOEY South Common:

Considering the staff change over and all. We went before the supper rush and still no better. We order pretty much the same thing everything and for the past two times they can't get it right. Sliders no pickle no onions and you guessed it they came loaded. This is also the second time one meal came out before the other. I understand steak take longer then ribs but it shouldn't be the other way. Our server offered a... read more.
