Great Chinese fusion food. Excellent cocktails and good service. Place was very quiet as it was early days after reopening after COVID. But would certainly recommend read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Britt doesn't like about Sai Woo:

Came here to celebrate my birthday, my friend recommended this place to me I had never been before. Horrible service! Our server took a long time to come over and greet us, she even had helped the table next to us who were seated 5 min after us. I'm a server so this was very disappointing for such a popular place. Food was great although our green beans came out after we finished everything else at the table. Server... read more. Sai Woo from Vancouver is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Particularly the impossible fusions of different ingredients offer the guests a remarkable taste experience of this extraordinary fusion cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Sai Woo. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known dishes too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients enjoy, Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
