The restaurant from Toronto offers 109 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average CA$14. What Haskell Hettinger likes about Midi Bistro:

Really our dinner here ..first they have a extremely fair bring your own wine policy..$15.00 7 days a week ..i would say thats the best in the city The food is the star of the show here No unpretentious french restarant here it is straight...shooting classic french quisine that would be at home in rural Paris...the onion soup was a huge sucess zero room for improvement As was the beef bourguignon..and the finishing t... Midi Bistro used to be one of my favourite French style bistros, located not too far from the Art Gallery of Ontario.

I dined there last week and discovered they had raised their Prix Fix Menu by $10 to $45 for three courses. There are still better places in Toronto for $35 . The portion sizes are large but I'd say the quality of the cooking is just "good". Service is fine; bread not what you'd expect in a French bis... read more. Midi Bistro from Toronto is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to sit with friends or alone, and you can look forward to typical delicious French cuisine. There are also scrumptious menus available, typical for Europe, Additionally, of course, the atmosphere plays a big role, so the visitors appreciate not only the fine menus, but also the bistro itself love.
