What Edwin Gusikowski likes about Aish Tanoor:

My wife & I ate here. We had Grilled Chicken shishkabab , steamed vegetables and Laffa pita bread. There was pickled sliced beets and cole slaw also. The meal was served promptly. The food was delicious. The food was kosher read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Blair Considine doesn't like about Aish Tanoor:

The open kitchen and crowded setting makes this a less than peaceful place to eat. The portions are huge but not tasty enough to finish. It's the price point that must draw people to it, as there are very few Kosher restaurants in the area...that are reasonably priced. read more. At Aish Tanoor in Toronto you can savor delicious vegetarian dishes, that are free from any animal meat or fish, well digestible Mediterranean meals are also available. Furthermore, you can order fresh roasted grill goods, The guests also rave about the delicious, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the own hummus or a yoghurt dip; the exciting combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
