The place from Montréal offers 73 different meals and drinks on the card at an average CA$6. What Robin Larkin likes about Marusan Comptoir Japonais:

Small restaurant with really nice minimalistic interior. Service is superfriendly in french and english :-) We had first some sushi and then different ramen bowls. Sushi were really exquisit, fresh and tasty. Ramen really nice too, my partner's one quite spicy, but hey he asked for it. It's not the classic sushi restaurant, a lot of different meals on the menu. The day we were there (a saturday night) there were a lot o... read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Dock Cartwright doesn't like about Marusan Comptoir Japonais:

Entrée de fèves edamame réussie (c'est quand même dur à manquer). Nouilles ramen parfumées. Pour le reste, les plats comportent beaucoup de friture. Les seuls sushis qu'on trouve au menu le soir sont flambés à la torche, pas tellement notre tasse de thé. Service courtois et personnel agréable, mais l'endroit n'est pas un coup de coeur. Marusan Comptoir Japonais from Montréal creates for you scrumptious sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out), in addition to many additional variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, and a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat are used to cook easily digestible Japanese dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Marusan Comptoir Japonais. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients eat, The visitors of the restaurant also appreciate the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
