This pub was recommended so we decided to give it a try for brunch. Everything was great! The service from start to finish. The menu items we chose as chose in photos were delicious. We also had a Bloody Caesar and some roasted potatoes. The place was busy even in the later afternoon. We will return soon for dinner with friends! read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside, and there is complimentary WLAN.

What Victoria Rowe doesn't like about Bishop & Bagg:

Nice pub with an appealing ambiance and a neighborhood feel. The food was good and reasonably priced. I enjoyed the jerk chicken. The service left a lot to be desired though. Just plain inattentive. Our waiter never asked if we would like another drink, or dessert, or the bill. Would be a good place with better service. read more.

A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Bishop & Bagg in Montréal traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, In addition, the latest games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the visitors also love. If you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch awaits you, It shows that the typical Canadian dishes are well received by the visitors of the establishment.
