The restaurant from Montréal offers 90 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average CA$10. What feaumom likes about Zaika:

We were a group of four, a mom with 3 teens, including 2 hungry boys. The food was very tasty, and the medium spice level suited us just fine. We ordered 3 naans and 2 rice to accompany 3 meat and 2 veggie dishes that were shared, family style. We all agreed the gravies were rich in flavour. Would definitely return and recommend to others. Richard made us feel welcome with his friendly manner. read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Gabe B doesn't like about Zaika:

Overall it was just an ok experience. Our server was not helpful and didn't answer when asked how many dishes he recommended for us and if there were certain ones that were more popular than others. We ended up with two very similar dishes and were a bit disappointed by that. The pakoras we had as starters were delicious though. The ambiance was lacking and although it's described as minimalist chic it just seemed... read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The successful Asian fusion cuisine of the Zaika from Montréal - a delicious mix of proven and the unexpected, Particularly the unimaginable combinations of different products offer the visitors an unforgettable taste experience of this successful fusion cuisine. Visitors also know to appreciate the utilization of typical Indian spices , At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
