The place from Montréal offers 110 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average CA$9. What Abbey Lebsack likes about Haru Hana:

I have eaten here a few times. Everything has been tasty, but nothing really stands out. Small and can be crowded so many of the orders are to go. The woman running the place is not welcoming or particularly friendly. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather. What Everardo

Feeney doesn't like about Haru Hana:

Ordered the curry pork katsu and got the demi-glaze instead, the pork was slightly dried out and the sauce had absolutely no flavour, the vegetables were dreadful. One of the most disappointing meals I've had. read more.

Haru Hana from Montréal prepares for you fine sushi (e.g., Maki and Sashimi), as well as in many other variations, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat. Furthermore, the guests love the inventive combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. In this restaurant there is also an large selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
