This place has always fresh food, great fish, cooked just right not overcooked or undercooked. The greek lamb which is roasted is so tender it actually melts in your mouth. The restaurant is run by a husband and wife that is why the service is great they have a way to satisfy the customer. The only problem is it is always crowded so you have to reserve ahead of time. This is a place we would go back. read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Edythe Bergnaum doesn't like about Elounda:

my wife and I visited the other recently and stayed here for lunch. she had been there earlier and obviously liked it enough to return I ordered one of the midday specialties. a good suppe followed a Greek salate. they were good. my main course followed. scallops. they were like shoeskin. obviously over boiled. they were also dusted or rather dipped with flour, then roasted for too long. then drink into a sick, sweet...
