Went to lunch on a weekday and found the service to be very friendly and caring. All staff encountered were smiling and helpful. We had the lunch specials, which came fast and decent size portions. taste was good too. A little on the pricey side though. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What Tanya Marie Unger doesn't like about Zibo!:

We were told 15-20 minute wait for a table...the wait was over an hour. The barmaid gave me a chipped martini glass because they were out of glasses and told me to drink from the straw. Our waitress did not recognize the dishes we ordered from the English menu. And she was eager to give us the bill. read more.
