We moved from Pickering to the West Coast and you would think that you could find great fish and chips out there but think again because it just isn't happening. We always end up saying "Not as good as Jaspers." Jenny and family- Thank-you for so many years of great food, great service and always remembering the the malt vinegar. Hope to see you again soon and bring a Vancouver Island Tea Towel for your collection! read more. What Geovany Marquardt doesn't like about Jasper Fish & Chips:

Visited this restaurant several times. Nothing special really. Pretty good fish and chips. We always get Halibut but they have other choices. Not exactly a bargain price though. We will probably go back but it won't be our first choice. read more.
