Here you can find the menu of Batifol Bar & Grill in Québec. At the moment, there are 36 meals and drinks on the card. The Batifol restaurant has received mixed reviews from customers, with some expressing disappointment in the slow service and quality of food, while others rave about the wonderful dining experience they had. One diner described the service as the worst they had ever received, with long wait times and neglect from the waiter. Another review mentioned dissatisfaction with the quality of the food, particularly finding the burger disgusting and the pasta lacking in taste. On the other hand, guests who stayed at the adjoining hotel had nothing but praise for the food and staff at Batifol. They enjoyed both supper and breakfast there, with one customer even remarking that they were served full suppers late into the night without any issue. The menu was described as large and accommodating for adults, children, and large groups, with a friendly staff willing to meet customers' needs. The breakfast offerings were particularly recommended, with delicious items like pain baguette and sausages standing out. Overall, despite some negative feedback, Batifol seems to offer a diverse menu with the potential for both satisfying and disappointing dining experiences.
