What Colten Metz doesn't like about RJ's Taste of Asia:

I've been here twice and find the food average for Thai. I Love Thai food and I'm still searching for that AWESOME experience I always had in Oakville at a place that unfortunately closed. There was nothing really wrong with anything I've had from RJ's other than the Pad Thai is way too noodly, needs more veg and meat and way less noodles. I find this a common challenge. Maybe it's like me asking for spaghetti with I... read more. At RJ's Taste of Asia in Orangeville you can try delicious vegetarian courses, that are free from any animal meat or fish, The guests of the establishment also consider the extensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. The preparation of the menus is done typically Asian, Besides, the successful blend of different dishes with new and sometimes adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the customers - a good case of Asian Fusion.
