My husband and I received a gift certificate for this place, we never been here before. The restaurant is located in westboro area but even there it is located outside the main street. The atmosphere is casual and idle for a nice quiet dinner for two or even a small group. The food was delicious, even though the dishes are not suitable for sharing. The staff was helpful and pleasant and the restaurant has a nice colle... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside.
