We used to get take out from here when we visited Victoria, but this time decided to eat in. What a pleasant surprise! The place was packed on both nights and we could see why. The young male servers were friendly and efficient. Had we not known we were in Canada, we could have been in a fish and chip shop in the British Isles. The whole ambience and decor made us feel at ease. My wife had oysters and chips and I had a... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WLAN is available without additional charges. What

Jenifer Raynor doesn't like about Naughty Nellies Fish & Chips:

The place was full by 5:30 p.m. on a weeknight so we assumed this must be where the locals eat. A small dine-in restaurant with good efficient table service. Food was good but the chips just OK and coleslaw quite boring. If looking a good fish & chip dinner in a hurry this place will do. Certainly not the best Fish & chips place in Victoria. read more. In case you're hungry some seasoned South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delicious menus, prepared with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Typically, the burgers of this place are served as highlights along with sides like fries, salads or wedges, Particularly fine are also Sushi and specialties like Te-Maki from this place.
