Had dinner here on our last night in Quebec City, it was off the main tourist roads (we found by googling-excellent reviews . We were able to book a last minute reservation somehow- every table was full! Staff/service was excellent, your water cup was never empty and you did not have to flag a staff member down for anything-you were constantly checked on (but not pushy . Pasta (carbonara and veal parm was excellent... read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and there is free WLAN. What Jude B doesn't like about Ciccio Café:

Had very high hopes for this restaurant based on the reviews and whilst my meal was very good (shrimp and scallops), my husband and daughter both felt their meal was just okay. We shared a crème brûlée which was okay. The biggest disappointment was the atmosphere which felt old and tired, rather than quaint and homey which I think was the intention. Overall an average experience. read more. In Ciccio Café, a restaurant that serves Italian dishes in Québec, you can expect original Italian cuisine, including classics like pizza and pasta. Also, the guests of the restaurant love the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The magical desserts of the establishment also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
