This family restaurant has always been busy on every visit. It is relatively small and cozy and all tables are easily filled. Often there is a line at the door either waiting for a table or for pickup of an order. The service is efficient and personable. The pizza is exceptional. The toppings and sauce are great and the crust is to die for - not matched by any other restaurant in town. Go here, you won't be disappoint... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also have something outside. What Lori Willms doesn't like about Louis' Restaurant & Pizzeria: eating is not bad here. I often bought pizza here. I recently went in and decided to throw the diet out of the window and ordered a single small bottle of koks with my order. not a 2 liter, not a 1 liter, but a 500ml smaller. koks and was calculated $3,40 on my credit card. Once I saw this, I said $3,40 for a small bottle of coks? and the lady's answer was that the prices rose to everything my friend had. no prices h...
