We visited Arturo's for dinner while we were staying in Sault Ste. Marie. The location is easy to find and there wasn't any issue with parking. Our waitress, Cara, was excellent in providing advice on the various items; everything from choice of wines, to our salads, to the entree's and finally to our choice of dessert. My wife had the seafood ravioli which was very good. I had the Pappadelle al Zafferano and would h... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What Rodrigo Romaguera doesn't like about Arturo Ristorante Italiano:

I have been to Arturo's many times with customers and always had a good meal. I tried to book online for this past Monday and despite the site saying it was open I was emailed to tell me they were not. That's ok. Mix up...and no big deal but when I asked for a recommendation for somewhere similar to take my customers to (I am not from the area and don't know the higher end restaurants in town) I was told he couldn't...
