We had supper here and enjoyed the chilli cheese fries, Memphis style 1/2 rack of ribs with a hot potato salad. The platter and dishes are camping style (aluminum, enamel covered aluminum, wine in mason jar)! but the food is delicious. The best was the saskatoon/pear crumble with homemade brown sugar vanilla ice cream....sooo tasty. Despite being very busy the service was friendly and prompt. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What Nikki C doesn't like about Camp Cookhouse & General Store:

We have eaten at the Camp Cookhouse several times, and it has never failed to disappoint. The menu is uninspiring, the food is mediocre, and we are always surprised at the ratings here. The menu is full of carbs (which we generally like) and meat (also like), but the vegetable/salad offerings are barely existent. The ribs are side ribs, full of gristle and fat; the hamburgers are okay, but the buns are soft and get s... read more.
