This place has good food, and an amazing selection of local beer on tap. It's small, but the atmosphere is a nice one. Good for business travellers, or just hanging out with some friends. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is free WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What William Lehner doesn't like about Tom's Little Havana:

After an uphill walk back from the harbor side area, we selected Tom's Little Havana Cafe for lunch. The place was mostly empty. It seemed somewhat dark with a bohemian mood. It reminded me of a college dive....probably really busy at night. It seemed out of place on the first floor of a high rise building. The waitress told us they had been displaced from their location of 20 years across from the Dalhousie School o... read more. Tom's Little Havana from Halifax is the perfect place if you want to try fine American meals like burgers or barbecue. You can also discover scrumptious South American dishes in the menu. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. In addition, the latest games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the customers also love.
