I love this small quaint dining spot. They have mouth watering dishes that includes gluten free options. The crêpes are made with traditional way, buchweat flour! My only wish is that their Crêpe Suzette was made with fresh oranges instead of marmalade... read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also be served outside. What Cary Senger doesn't like about La Parisienne Creperie:

a small restaurant for crepes. the tables are close. better to plan and have a reservation if they want to go during the weekend, otherwise will wait long. server are very polite and friendly, but can be more attentive. crepes quality are good as expected and not necessarily impressive. prefer the French coffee in the other crepes restaurant in oakville personally. read more. At the restaurant, the fresh and fine juices on the drinks menu wonderfully complement the dishes, In the morning they serve a extensive breakfast here. Of course, we must not forget the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Furthermore, the delicious treats of this local sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
