Came with friends and was impressed by the taste, presentation and variety in their gourmet brunch menu. A little pricey for brunch but worth it. Service was excellent, decor was industrial chic, atmosphere was casual relaxed. A last-minute find and very pleased with experience. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What Daphnee L doesn't like about Le Bon Vivant:

Great service. The menu seemed really nice but all the food we ordered was quite average. To be fair, it was also average price. The restaurant is really small so I highly recommend making reservations and I would specify NOT the seats next to the bathroom. Was an awful situation those seats are in, the door to the bathroom literally opens onto your seat and it only has one stall so if anybody is waiting in line they... read more. Freshly harvested mint, tasty salad, sprouts and a few drops of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam on the menu, but also when visiting the local Le Bon Vivant in W MONTREAL, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning. In this locale there is also an extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, It's worth mentioning that the typical Canadian dishes are well received by the customers of the restaurant.
