After a tour around Toronto, my cousin brought me to one of his favorite quarters for lunch, Parisco Cafe. It is a small intimate place, on the ground floor of an apartment only east of Exhibition Place. I had a delicious creamy pasta with mushrooms containing a salad. My cousin started with a French onion soup and a sandwich with pomes. His eyes were bigger than his stomach and he ended up with half the sandwich an... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What روزا الامام doesn't like about Parisco Cafe: The worse service I had in Toronto. We arrived for lunch just after one on Saturday. The place was almost empty and we ordered a salad and a sandwich and two beer. While drinking the beers, the place started to fill up and we noticed...that people who came later we're getting their meals before us. The waitress said she was sorry but I'm sorry that in this day a verbal I'm sorry is not enough when you give poor servi... read more. The extensive range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Parisco Cafe even more worthwhile, Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here.
