What Beryl Kris likes about Milagro Cantinas: Popped in for a quick bite and to get out of the sudden rain fall, which ended up being the best decision I made all day. Margaritas are classically tasty, albeit a bit expensive ($10 for a single shot) but the fish tacos were incredible and I left happy and full. Wifi available, so I read the paper online and enjoyed my stay. Service was really friendly yet casual and comfortable. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat.

WiFi is available for free. What Lura Olson doesn't like about Milagro Cantinas:

I love Mexican food and typically the restaurants are fun and lively. Milagro on Queen Street West is indeed fun and lively but the food is overpriced for what it is and we came out of a fairly simple meal with margaritas and a...few beers for with a bill well over Just not worth it for what it was. The service was a bit slow as well and while we received endless nacho chips, we waited for the guacamole for at least... read more. Anticipate the varied, tasty Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive diversity of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
