The place from Toronto offers 58 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average CA$31. What Michael G likes about Bloom Restaurant:

This was a return trip for weekday dinner with a colleague. Food was tasty as expected. Portion size was good, and food was served hot and well presented. Restaurant was very quiet (3 tables only) so service was attentive and food was served quickly. Good selections of reasonable priced wines read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WiFi is available free of charge. What lilhrha doesn't like about Bloom Restaurant: Four years later I have tried Bloom again during Summerlicious. All servings are minuscule. The salad was tasty enough but the greens were limp. The fish was delicious and perfectly cooked as were the green beans. Beers at $7.50 are the smallest size available, about 323 ml. Establishments nearby sell full pints of Stella for less.

Dessert was so tiny that it's difficult to assess it, but my two tiny bites were tasty... read more. At Bloom Restaurant from Toronto you have the opportunity to enjoy delicious vegetarian dishes, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was processed. They also present tasty South American cuisine to you in the menu. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine.
