Always a delicious brunch at the Sunset Grill. Great home-cooked meal in a clean and friendly place. The wait staff is pleasant (with one or two exceptions over the years) and the service is fast and efficient. Can be busy at times (Saturday-Sundays between 10-11am) but that only means it's a great spot. Lines move quickly but you never feel rushed. read more. What User doesn't like about Sunset Grill:

Had breakfast with spouse. I tried the crab benedict. Love the crab cakes, wish they could be served on there own. Didn't enjoy the hollandaise sauce or the 2 asparagus cut in half to make 4. Stalks too tough to eat. The fried potatoes barely warm and lacking any flavour. Good coffee. read more.
