The restaurant from Québec offers 127 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average CA$13. What User likes about Cosmos:

We were at the Cosmos Cafe on the "Grande allée" street in Quebec last week and I really enjoyed my dining experience. We sat at a table on the terrace outside and really enjoyed the lively atmosphere but inside the restaurant has a really cool modern design so that would have been great too. There are lots of cool cars driving by which seems to be the thing along that street in the evening so that was fun. I had the... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. WiFi is available for free. What User doesn't like about Cosmos:

Good restaurant, in the restaurants and pubs street at the top of the hill, in Quebec. Since we are at Le Concorde hotel, we searched for reviews of restaurants in the area. The Cosmos Café has reviews which we can now say are a bit over rated! Food is OK, but not great. Lots of people, nice noisy atmosphere, many groups and tourists. A place for tourists! read more. Cosmos from Québec is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, You'll find delicious South American dishes also on the menu. guests of the Cosmos appreciate the typical Canadian dishes as well, This sports bar is a popular hangout for customers who enjoy watching the latest games or races on the big screen while enjoying food and drinks.
