I rarely eat at Ukrainian restaurants because they can never live up to the standards of the babas that I know.

But this place comes close. :) Excellent desert pyrogies. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What Natallia O doesn't like about D J's Perogie Kitchen:

We've discovered this place more than 10 years ago and always tried to stop for a quick bit during our trips to BC. This time was the first major disappointment: perogies were as good as ever, but the burger my husband had was thin, tough, and looked like the cheapest reject in the frozen discards department. The fries that came with it were absolutely bland no salt, no seasoning. Complete waste of time and lunch mon... read more.
