We were on a cross country trip and always like to try local restaurants rather than chains or fast food places. We hit the jackpot with this one! The Dragonfly is a delightful small cafe, cheerful, interesting photos on the walls, friendly staff and an interesting menu. We tried the vegetarian panini which was excellent - one of the best I've had- and the daily special made with gluten-free bread, also excellent inc... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Dragonfly Cafe:

We went here for breakfast. The food was good and they had some interesting choices. The coffee was good, but it's a coffee shop so you pay per cup; this isn't the type of breakfast place you get coffee refills. For two of us, breakfast was $40 and it was not that good to make it worth that much. Very expensive. read more.
