On this site, you can find the complete menu of Reds In Ramsey from Calgary. Currently, there are 20 meals and drinks up for grabs. Red's impressed us during our last visit, as we had been loyal customers for a couple of years. However, on this occasion, things took a downhill turn. The hash browns were soggy and undercooked, the sausage was disappointing, and the toast servings had been reduced. The food quality was not up to par, leaving us with a hefty bill of $17 per entree. Another diner experienced long wait times and cold food, while also noting poor service quality. The Ramsay location was a letdown, with a terribly tasting omelette and underdone hash browns. On a positive note, the friendly staff and tasty food at this restaurant's location impressed some customers. Their eggs benedict was a winner for others. Despite some hiccups, it seems that Red's has the potential to provide a satisfactory dining experience with the right combination of good service and great food.
