This is one of our regular places to eat with friends. The service is friendly and quick, The food is very good. If you go on Tuesdays, there are deals on certain menu items. We like the Senior or Silver menu. It is just the right size and price for lunch. The nips and sweet potato fries are the best. And who can resist the graham wafer pie (Flapper pie). Great dessert! The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Gardiner W doesn't like about Salisbury House Family:

Given the number of them around in Winnipeg Salisbury must be doing something right. Dishes are pretty middle of the road...enjoyable enough but not haute cuisine by any stretch. But then not haute cuisine prices either. We had a prairie sandwich which was okay and a bottomless soft drink. Would like to try their breakfast one day read more.
