Despite the fact that this area is flooded with competition, Sushi Dragon is a good and inexpensive choice if you are in the area. The food is predictable, but not bad at all, the prices reasonable, and the service very good.

Given the amount of competition you probably won't be struggling to get a table, and the service will be quick. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Milat Pirivatrić doesn't like about Sushi Dragon Japanese Restaurant:

My experience on a Wednesday night an hour before closing was so different from other posters that I had to do a Google street search for a photo to be certain it was the same place. I ordered albacore sashimi and spicy negi hama roll (spicy tuna with scallions) and got a generously cut serving of...something similar to tuna but with the texture of soft tofu, and the roll made of the same fish, same texture. It was h... read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The imaginative Asian fusion cuisine of the Sushi Dragon Japanese Restaurant from Victoria - a delicious mix of the familiar and the unexpected, and it's made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, easily digestible Japanese menus cooked. But the undisputed highlight of this place is the delicious Sushi such as Maki and Sashimi, Furthermore, the visitors of the restaurant enjoy the comprehensive selection of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available.
