We had a family reunion at this restaurant on Kingsway in Vancouver. It was not too crowded as we went early. The service was all right despite what others have written about it. The food was good, too. The melon soup was very good as was the steamed fish. The squab was also very, very good. The vegetables were OK..The parking area in front of the restaurant is a bit limited, but you can park on the nearby streets ea... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Top Cantonese Cuisine Restaurant:

the place was recommended by someone. So, we went in a group of five. The first sign we should have recognized was the manager trying to swat flies with an electronic swatter around our table. The food was mediocre and the service was terrible. Asking for chili sauce and tea was made the managers/waiters mad. What's with that? We were polite and did not ask many times. Where is the basic service that we deserve. Plac... read more.
