Yes, the location is a bit rough, but the food is delicious, cheap and fresh, and we always have nice interactions with the sisters running the place. I had a birthday dinner here recently with family, and everyone loved it! Some favorites: fresh salad rolls; crispy shiitake; hot and salty tofu; hot and sour soup; fried rice; Shan... The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Taylor M doesn't like about Veggie Garden Restaurant:

Ordered pad thai that came with no peanuts, bean sprouts, lime or anything that resembled pad thai.. just noddles, tofu, celery and a very strange sauce. Also got the yellow tofu curry which had about 65% bamboo shoots and overall reminded me of dyed glue with no flavour but yet was offensive to eat... wow, also didn't come with rice. It definitely was NOT a curry but our whole family had no idea what it was. We wer... read more. The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Veggie Garden Restaurant from Edmonton, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of familiar meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, and you can look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine. Look forward to the enjoyment of delicious vegetarian dishes, Likewise, the visitors of the restaurant prefer the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
