My wife and I were running errands on a Thursday evening and decided to stop at the Emerald Palace. The restaurant was busy, but not full, and the service was smooth and efficient. Our servers were polite and answered our questions easily. When my wife asked about vegetarian dishes the server shared, without our asking, that the tofu would be fried in a common deep fryer and asked if that would be OK for us. The dish... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Raphaelle Bechtelar doesn't like about Emerald Palace:

this little strip mall location has some good food although not really authentic it is tasty and reasonably priced not a place to impress dates but fine for a bubbies night out read more. In the kitchen of Emerald Palace in Winnipeg, original Asian spices fine traditional dishes are prepared, Many customers are particularly impressed by the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Emerald Palace. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, delectable vegetarian dishes are also in the menu available.
