Quick breakfast before business meetings. Co-worker and I sat down around 7 am at the counter. Greetly promptly by server who poured us two cups of coffee and took our orders. Made conversation with another patron at the end of the counter who turned out to be the owner who once worked at the very same restaurant years ago. How cool is that?! She worked there when younger then went on to work elsewhere and came back... read more. What User doesn't like about Twister's

Burgers Fries & Malts:

From looking at the menu, it doesn't look like there were many changes with the new ownership. They added fried chicken, it was overcooked and bland. I ordered the Twister platter and it tastes completely different and is not good. They changed the buns (to the dry ones) and a few other things and the burger was dry and lacking in flavour. The fries were undercooked and came lukewarm (imagine pale limp cold fries), a... read more.
