Good service, friendly welcome from staff. Water refills came often as did side-dishes. Kimchi is great. My friend and I both had the Butter Bulgogi which was very tasty, but a little bit pricey for the portion. Overall, I would maybe come back to try some of their other things, but I have had better bulgogi. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also be served outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Nongbu Korean Eatery:

I've been here twice now and I'm embarrassed to admit I always let my friend order. He's a somewhat bossy control freak but manages to choose yummy dishes so I play ball. He always orders the ribs which are a hot mess to eat but delicious. Get the Kim chi. The drinks tho.....dismal. Zero options unless you are fully into sake or wish to fall into a diabetic coma with the cocktails. You can't even order a gin and soda... read more. The large diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Nongbu Korean Eatery even more worthwhile, and you can look forward to the scrumptious classic seafood cuisine. The meals are prepared according to typical Asian style, The successful fusion of different menus with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the guests - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
