This place was pretty good, a little dark and mildly out dated but the food was excellent, definitely overpriced some but it was good! I definitely prefer the Sawmill in Grande Prairie it has a much livelier atmosphere, and the menu wasn't quite what I expected, I do realize it's a prime rib and steakhouse but never expected that that was going to be 98% of all that was on the menu read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Sawmill Banquet Centre:

I was invited by co-workers from the area. Half of them told me the place was the best lunch around, the other half said it was so-so. There were eight of us in the group. This is buffet only - the buffet was clean and offered a variety of salads, sides and hot meat including a roast and turkey carving station. But...no desserts, ugh...really? read more. An additional service offered by the restaurant is the catering service for guests, it shows that the typical Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the establishment. Even if you're only a bit hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, and you can look forward to the tasty traditional seafood cuisine.
