What User likes about Sushi Bang: Tiny space, but we were seated quickly and the food came fast. Sushi (Cali roll and asparagus roll) had a great fresh flavor, and the rolls were just huge. Veggie spring rolls were not great - clearly frozen and not fresh made. Hot tea served first rather than water, a nice touch. read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Sushi Bang:

Ate here for lunch today. Sushi is alright, not great. They're getting a low score for being rude. The server, of Chinese descent, was the rudest server ever. She was annoyed when my friend mentioned the wrong food "Tsk. Gomaе does not have pork! What do you really want!?. Do you want brown rice too or tsk". with side rolls of eyes, sighs and full facial attitude. She looked annoyed that we were there. Very very rude... read more. With a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, the Sushi Bang from Vancouver prepares easy-to-digest, delicious Japanese menus, Furthermore, the visitors of the restaurant enjoy the comprehensive selection of the various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available. Undoubtedly, the highlight of this establishment is the tasty Sushi such as Maki and Sashimi, The creative fusion of different menus with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the guests - a good example of Asian Fusion.
