Great service, great food. They have a good variety of vietnamese food, rather than just pho. Their vermicelli bowls are good, their chicken pho and mien ga are delicious. Try their fruit smoothies, even half sweet is sweet enough for me! Highly recommend! read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat outside, and there is no-charge WiFi. What User doesn't like about Mui Ngo Gai Vietnamese Restaurant:

WE arrived later on a Sunday night, 9pm and stayed across the street. Went in and the place was really noisy with a big party, but we needed to eat. Food was really tasty & service was quick. Bring cash to pay--lineup to use bank machine at the cashier seemed to take forever....a popular place to eat by the look of it. But really, really noisy with this big party. read more. Fresh mint, crunchy salad, sprouts and a few drops of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam on the plate, but also when visiting the local Mui Ngo Gai Vietnamese Restaurant in Vancouver, Furthermore, the visitors love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. The preparation of the meals is done typically Asian.
