Hands down, the best Cambodian and Vietnamese fusion food I've had! A couple of my friends who've been here before brought us here while visiting Vancouver. We got there around 630pm on a Sunday evening and had to wait about 40 minutes before we got a seat. Expect to wait 30-45 minutes.. but it'll be worth it. Make sure your party is all there otherwise they won't seat you (overheard from another group). All the dish... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Phnom Penh Restaurant Ltd:

We were a group of 10 and had dinner at this place. It has been around for a long time and is busy. The southeastern Asia Decor has been the same for a long time. Not much ambience. We order their famous dishes. A couple were ok and the rest were not good at all. There was the basic service of food brought to the table and that was it. Nothing extra or special. I would not recommend this place at all. Way over rated. read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Phnom Penh Restaurant Ltd from Vancouver, with its creative Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of what you know meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, You can also discover scrumptious South American menus in the menu. In addition, there are fine American menus, such as burgers and grilled meat, In addition, numerous guests look forward to enjoying traditional Vietnamese menus with the perfect hint of Southeast Asian flavor during a stop at the Phnom Penh Restaurant Ltd.
