We were staying at a hotel near here and decided to go in, and we were glad we did. My husband did not want to go, but I overruled him (lol). The people who work here (and owner too) are so friendly, and they seem to know all the people who were dining here. I had wonton soup which was so good and filled with wontons and meat and veggies. I loved it. My husband had mixed veggies with beef and noodles. The plate was e... read more. What User doesn't like about Petite Saigon Vietnamese Restaurant Ltd:

I've been to this restaurant a number of times when visiting Airdrie and what I will say is that the service is always quite good and the food is reliably tasty and hot. While it isn't long on decor and may not be the best Vietnamese food I have ever tasted, I know that I can get a really good meal and at a very affordable price. The locals seem to really like this place as it's consistently busy. read more.
