We thoroughly enjoyed our experience at the Crudessence. The food is tasty and fresh, the portions are generous and very well presented. The decor is relaxing and free from useless distractions. The restaurant is rather small but we did not feel cramped in : a small dining room is separated from the take-out counter, which is great. Parking available just across on the street (paying). A few of us visited this organic vegetarian place. Frankly, we all found the salads and wraps tasteless and expensive. I am sure they are very healthy but boring. The service is slow and the place is tiny. We didn't try the smoothies but heard they were good. The dessert we tried was good. read more. At Crudessence from Montréal you can try delicious vegetarian meals, in which no animal meat or fish was used, Moreover, the sweet desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. Not to be left out is the large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale.
