What Rico Collins likes about Omnivore: We had a birthday party with Omnivore St-Laurent yesterday. 40 people. Wow, wow. Little, but sociable. We came in, champagne was waiting for us. I did it well. Food food, again wow. The food was extraordinary. We would have...60 The service was upstairs. Pricing more than reasonable. Repeat, sure. Perfect place for small meetings Thanks to the team. Stéphane read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside.

What Gregorio Montanari doesn't like about Omnivore:

Six of us selected this place based on excellent reviews. Turned out we wasted 122 dollars for bulky but "awful" food. We ordered some Keynes (like falafel) which tasted terrible. Some had the carnivore plates others the omnivore plates. All came with toasted pita bread which were very overtoasted. The plates were huge but hardly enjoyable. Each of us left portions on output plate and we went elsewhere (Patrice Pati... read more. The extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Omnivore, The guests also rave about the tasty, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the own hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the specialties from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. If you'd like something dessert for dessert, Omnivore does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, the menu also includes fine vegetarian recipes.
